

Improving life and leadership of assistant principals

Show Notes, Episode 103: Wisdom in Two Parts with Dr. Jan Osborn, Part 2

About this show:

Part two of our incredible interview with Dr. Jan Osborn. This week we learn more life lessons and hear more good stories from Jan.

Notable Quotes

Jan:

Stop sharing at your shoes and look forward.

I don't plan that far ahead. I don't even buy green bananas.

Everybody's got great ideas, but who's willing to do the work?

If you got a friend that has half of a good idea, sometimes you have to help him out and explain the rest of it to him.

I take the Woody Hayes approach. I may not be the smartest, but no one's going to outwork me.

The goal for me is not to be a leader. My goal is to be a good person, a good educator, and a good friend. I just want to be that person that people want to come see.

Frederick:

I never met a donut I didn't like.

If you're a leader and you care about people, sometimes we need to be able to say those hard things because you want somebody to grow.

Frederick's Links:

Email: frederick@frederickbuskey.com

Website: <https://www.frederickbuskey.com/>

LinkedIn: <http://www.linkedin.com/in/strategicleadershipconsulting>

Daily Email subscribe: <https://adept-experimenter-3588.ck.page/ff61713840>